DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Applicant's election of Group I invention (claims 1-10 and 20-29) in the reply filed on 8/9/04 is acknowledged. However, upon further review species 1A and species 1B, claims 1-10 and 20-23. The Examiner agreed that claims 1 and 20 are generic claims. Therefore, the requirement of species election set forth in prior action paragraph 2 is hereby withdrawn. Thus, claims 11-19 are withdrawn from further consideration pursuant to 37 CFR 1.142(b) as being drawn to a nonelected invention, there being no allowable generic or linking claim. Election was made without traverse in the reply filed on 8/09/04.

An office action on the merits of claims 1-10 and 20-23 as follows:

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

2. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

3. Claims 1-10 and 20-23 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

the claims directed to "a slot holder" (see preamble claims 1 and 20) however claims also directed to an outside element such as "a card edge slots having plurality of pin . . ." (claims 1 and 20, line 2-3, etc.) which makes the scope of claims unclear.

It is not clear whether "a card slot" (claim 2, line 2) is part of "a slot holder".

The phrase "... is passed over a wave solder machine ..." (claim 6, lines 3) does not seem to further limit the claimed structure. Also, such outside structure that makes scope of the claims unclear.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

4. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

5. Claims 1-6 and 20-23 as best understood are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Cauceglia et al (4,223,934).

As applied to claims 1 and 20, Cauceglia et al disclose a slot holder comprising: a plurality of slot insertion members 15 to hold a plurality of card edge slots 11 having plurality of pin extending from each of the plurality card edge slots in alignment for insertion of the plurality of pins into a plurality of holes of a printed circuit board (see Figs. 1-2); at least one grip attachment member 27 connected to the plurality of slot insertion members to rigidly hold the plurality of slot insertion member in a fixed position (see Fig. 2); and at least one grip member connected to the at least one grip attachment member 22 to enable the holding and positioning the slot holder (see Fig. 2).

Limitation of claim 2 is also met by Cauceglia et al (see Fig. 2, shows a card slot 11 having a plurality of electrical contact points associated therefrom).

As applied to claims 3-4 and 20, Cauceglia et al disclose at least two grip attachment members that associated with at least two grip members (see Fig. 2, references 22 and 21, Figs. 7 and 9).

Limitations of claims 5-6, 22 and 23 are also met by Cauceglia et al since there is no structural different between the slot holder of the application compare to the applied prior art therefore, the prior art is capable for use in a wave solder machine as recited in the application claims (see claims 6 and 22, line 3).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

6. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

7. Claims 7-10 as best understood are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Cauceglia et al.

Regarding limitation of claims 7-10, it is noted that Cauceglia et al inherently disclose the limitations of these claims i.e., that it is known to the art that slot member having insertion points that is extending into the card slot.

Limitations of claims 8-10 are also met as discussed above.

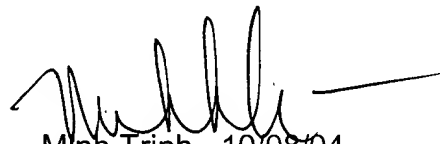

Conclusion

8. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. The prior art references cited for their teaching of slot holder tool for PCB or the like.
